

SUPPLEMENTARY FIGURE

Supplementary Figure 1. Weight distribution map to classification between AD patients and NCs which is reconstructed by combining voxel information that is entered into the model and top 6% of the model parameters. The color bar represents the weight value from GSplit LBI model, the larger the weight value of the model, the warmer the color in the graph.